

WHO WE ARE

Kharis Campus Ministry (KCM) is a non-denominational Christian campus ministry that aims to glorify Christ through loving fellowship and spreading His name on campus.

THEME: Nothing Else

"Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal."

~ 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 (NIV)

CHURCH

One of the main things we stress at KCM is that we are not a church nor a substitute for one. If you are far from home, looking for a church, or just haven't been to church in a while (or ever!), we strongly recommend that you get plugged into and involved in the life of a Gospel-preaching church. Please reach out to any of the KCM Leaders for personalized recommendations. Better yet, go with them! Some churches even provide rides!

LET'S STAY CONNECTED!!

Connecting with others can be difficult... without QR codes! Use our Linktree to see our events on the KCM Google Calendar, follow our page on Instagram, listen to us on Spotify, and even join us on Discord!!

1 Corinthians 13:1-13 • Way of Love

Background: Love is one of the most talked about, yet most misunderstood concepts in human history—often reduced to a feeling or emotion that comes and goes. In contrast, the Bible consistently portrays love as something much deeper. In this chapter, Paul, coming off of his teaching on spiritual gifts, addresses the manner in which the gifts should be exercised. As you read, consider how your own understanding of love compares and contrasts with what the scripture describes.

1 Corinthians 13:1-13 (NIV): The Way of Love

¹ If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Application Questions & Personal Reflection:

1. Verses 1 through 3 say that gifts, knowledge, and even radical sacrifice mean nothing without love. Is there an area of your faith where you've been going through the motions without love as the motivation? How could it be changed?
2. Re-read the list in verses 4-7, substituting your own name for "I love" (e.g., "Bob is patient, Bob is kind..."). Which quality is hardest for you to embody right now, and why?
3. How does recognizing the limits of your own understanding, as said in verse 12, change the way you interact with people you disagree with, inside or outside the church?
